

Contents

Preface 9

Section 1 Marketing concepts

Dinesh K. Gupta (India), Christie Koontz (USA) and Angels Massisimo (Spain)
Marketing Library and Information Services: Connecting from Past to the Future 13

Judith Broady-Preston (UK)
Changing Marketing Concepts: Contemporary Theories and Paradigms
in Services Marketing 23

Kiran Kaur (Malaysia)
Gaining Customer Loyalty: the Ultimate in Marketing 43

Jennifer Rowley (UK)
Branding Libraries: the Challenges and Opportunities. 55

Section 2 Excellence in Marketing

Christie Koontz (USA)
Excellence in Marketing: 2002–2012 71

Han Lifeng and Wang Yuan (China)
Falling in Love with the Library: Marketing Tsinghua University
Library in an Innovative Way 87

Elke Roesner and Urlika Ostrzinski (Germany)
Internet Marketing: the Silver Bullet for Web 2.0? 101

Sharon Koh and Wan Wee Pin (Singapore)
Web-based Marketing 115

Rosalind Dorsman (Australia)

Have You Done Your Homework? Five Years on of a Campaign
Life-Cycle 127

Nancy Collins (Canada)

Building Community and Fostering Connection in a Canadian Academic Library through a Buttons Campaign 139

Faith Brautigam and Denise Raleigh (USA)

StoryTubes Contest: Marketing Libraries in the Digital Age 163

Jane Purdie and Alyson Tyler (UK)

Happy Days for Welsh Libraries 177

Charlie Bennett and Ameet Doshi (USA)

From Georgia Tech to the World: Leveraging Existing Campus
Infrastructure to Market the Library to a Global Audience. 195

Section 3

Marketing in Different Countries and Libraries

Messaouda Boutaba and Nadia Temmar (Algeria)

Marketing in Algerian libraries: an Overview 205

Lamia Badra (France)

Teaching Marketing for Better Cultural Projects' Management: the Book Trade, Information and Communications Department Expertise . . . 213

Hella Klauser (Germany)

Management and Marketing: an Insight to Developments in German
Libraries 229

Kanwal Ameen (Pakistan)

Library and Information Services Marketing in Pakistan: a Profile 241

Walqueline da Silva Araújo and Márcio Bezerra da Silva (Brazil)

Relationship Marketing in Brazilian University Libraries 249

Nivaldo Oliveira, Ricardo de Souza Sette and Vânia Natal de Oliveira (Brazil)

Creating Value for Users of University Libraries: Brazilian View 263

Verena Tibljas (Croatia)
 Being a Library and Being Visible in the Community Today. 275

Fang Shu and Yang Zhiping (China)
 Marketing Library and Information Services: Exploration and Practice of the National Science Library of the Chinese Academy of Sciences 287

Sofia Margarida de Castro Barros Correia dos Santos (Portugal)
 Marketing as an Access Tool for Public Archives: Guidelines for its Application in Libraries. 299

Ana Figueira, Andreia Sousa and Carla Nunes (Portugal)
 Reaching the Islands in the Community: Marketing Practices in Madeira Regional Public Library, Portugal. 315

Section 4
E-marketing

Viviana Fernández Marcial (Spain)
 E-marketing for Libraries 335

A. Marcos Blázquez and J. C. Marcos Recio (Spain)
 Digital Marketing Tools Applied to the IE Library

Rajesh Singh (USA)
 Effective Use of Social Media Marketing for Customer Engagement in Information Organizations. 361

Sueli Angelica do Amaral (Brazil)
 Marketing Strategy to Monitor Library Websites' Functional
 Performance 373

Section 5
LIS marketing literature: a global outlook

G. Mahesh and Dinesh K. Gupta (India)
 Literature on Marketing of Library and Information Services:
 an Analysis Based on Google Scholar 387

Dinesh K. Gupta, G. Mahesh and Sarvesh Pareek (India)

Marketing Library and Information Services: a Bibliometric Study of IFLA publications 399

Joachim Schöpfel (France)

Towards the Global Library: Applying Agenda 21 to Library Marketing 409