

Contents

	Acknowledgments	vii
	Introduction	xi
Chapter 1	The Dilemmas of Contemporary Living Museum Historiography in Theory and Practice	1
	The Progressive Development Narrative of Living Museum History	1
	Progressive Histories: Major Works	3
	The Progressive Development Narrative in Practice	9
	(In)authentic Revolutions: Time, Space, and Living History Museums	20
	Plimoth Plantation	23
	Colonial Williamsburg	29
	Old Sturbridge Village	34
	Storytelling vs. Scientific Discourse	39
Chapter 2	Toward a New Genealogy of Living Museum Performance	53
	A Historiography of Immanence	53
	Defining an Episteme	56
	An Emergence within a Shifting Field	57
	Capitalizing on the Past—Capitalizing on Loss	63
	Social History and the Trajectory of Living Museum Performance	70

	The Naturalistic Ideal	84
	Living History as Pleasure	90
Chapter 3	Performance as Historiography at Living History Museums	103
	The Historiography of Performance	103
	The Field	106
	Missed Opportunities	122
	Alternatives to the Naturalistic Mode	127
	Post-Tourists and Living Museum Performance	132
	Conclusion	163
	Appendix: Selected Living History Programming Sites	169
	Bibliography	179
	Index	199
	About the Author	207